Itinerary:

We meet at 9.00 a.m. in our hangar in Entreves (near the cable car stations of Val Veny and the Skyway). After a hearty welcome, the daily itinerary will be defined and an equipment check will be carried out. We will head to the ski area of Courmayeur via Val Veny cable car. By the time we have reached Zerotta our guides will have evaluated the skiing level of the participants. At Zerotta we will be picked up by helicopter. Your guide will choose the descent depending on the conditions and the participants skills. We may then fly back to the ski area by helicopter. Here we can let the day come to an end with a good glass of wine and tasty Italian food. The guide is available to the group for the entire day.
