Zermatt is located at 1620 m a.s.l., at the bottom of the Zermatt valley, in the canton of Valais in western Switzerland which marks the border with Italy. In other words: holidays in Zermatt are holidays on the sunny side of Switzerland, where the adventurous alpine worlds and the romantic atmosphere of the mountain villages meet and merge. While retaining a typical welcoming atmosphere, it has developed into a modern tourist resort for both winter and summer. Closed to traffic, it boasts excellent connections, amazing lifts and kilometers of slopes: here you can ski even in summer! The snow-covered viewpoints of the area invite to suggestive winter hikes, snowshoe tours or tobogganing. Without forgetting the igloo village and the famous sun terraces of the restaurants.
